

Kunthavai Naacchiyaar Government Arts College for Women (A)
Thanjavur - 613007

7.3.1 Institutional Distinctiveness

The Government Arts College for Women was established in 1966 with the main objective of providing higher education for Women of Thanjavur. The College was renamed as 'Kunthavai Naacchiyaar Government Arts College for Women' in memory of the illustrious Sister of King Raja Raja Chola (ruled between 985 and 1014 C.E.) on the occasion of the 1000th anniversary celebration of the Coronation of the Great King of Thanjavur.

The core values adopted by the institution are ethics, integrity, excellence, quality and empathy. The followings are the distinctive observation of our institution concerned.

- Offering research and graduation for the poor rural students of this region.
- Well balanced curriculum with emphasizing spoken English, field trips, skill based, value added course works with hands on training sessions in their practical.
- Decentralized administrative and academic activities through various committees and coordinators
- Transparency in all its admission and administration process.
- Well planned execution of academic and extension activities
- Well practiced Tutorial system
- Proficient students get endowment cash award every year
- Well maintained hostel within the college campus
- Hygienic and green campus
- Promoting educational, societal and personal ethics by regular practice of taking oaths against any sort of discriminations and social evils.